

The Joint Service for Disabled Children

The Joint Service for Disabled Children (JSDC) is an important partnership.

It works to support disabled children and their families to lead fulfilling lives.

Together we work with parents to develop and deliver a range of services to disabled children and their families. These include short breaks and Family Support Services to children and young people aged 0 to 17 years, without the need for a statutory social care assessment.

Partners include; families, health colleagues, schools and voluntary sector agencies

See Enfield's Local Offer for SEND page for further details and information. <https://new.enfield.gov.uk/services/children-and-education/local-offer/>

The Joint Service for Disabled Children can be contacted on 020 8363 4047

Early Intervention Support Service (EISS)

The Early Intervention Support Service (EISS) is part of the Joint Service for Disabled Children (JSDC) (<https://new.enfield.gov.uk/services/children-and-education/local-offer/childrens-health-and-social-care/joint-service-for-disabled-children/>)

It includes;

- Teachers
- Early Years Professionals
- Dedicated Key Workers.

The service works together on a 'team around the family' model.

The service supports families with disabled children from birth until nursery entry.

Children and young people with Special Educational Needs and/or Disability

The Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Service makes sure all children and young people with a Special Educational Needs (SEN) have their needs assessed.

After the assessment the service uses the young person's Education Health and Care Plan to make sure they have the right support (in accordance with the Children and Families Act 2014 and the SEN Code of Practice).

SEND aims to promote the development of all children and young people and support them to achieve the best possible outcomes.

See Enfield's Local Offer for SEND page for further details and information. <https://new.enfield.gov.uk/services/children-and-education/local-offer/>
