

Equalities and Diversity in Procurement Supplier Guide

January 2021

Introduction

Enfield is a borough full of potential. We have a diverse and growing population; an emerging and strengthening business sector; an ambitious regeneration and housebuilding programme; and an attractive natural environment. Whilst exciting prospects lie ahead for the borough, it is essential that the benefits of Enfield's growth and development are harnessed effectively to support disadvantaged residents and do not widen the existing inequality gap or push out our most deprived residents.

Objectives of this Guidance

This guide is to support suppliers who do business with the Council, to ensure that they support Equality and Diversity in the same way that the Council does. The Council's Fairer Enfield Policy 2021-25 sets out how Enfield Council will tackle inequality and promote an inclusive workplace and inclusive communities, as the borough continues to grow, develop and create new opportunities for everyone in Enfield.

An important part of this work is to ensure the Council is encouraging and, where appropriate, requiring companies and other organisations which bid for Council business to practice and promote equalities in employment and service delivery, supporting our Fairer Enfield policy.

Each year, the Council enters into contracts worth many millions of pounds for buying goods, works and services on behalf of the people of Enfield. Whether provided by the Council or by external organisations Enfield will not discriminate on the grounds of disability or impairment, employment status, gender, gender reassignment, home address, marital status, nationality, national origin, race, religious belief, responsibility for dependants, sexual orientation or trade union membership. We aim to, tackle inequality and discrimination and promote equality, diversity and inclusion in all that we do. We expect our contracting partners to support us in these aims.

By Enfield complying with the Public Sector Equality Duty it helps us ensure that the goods and services we procure are fit for purpose and meet the needs of our users.

We expect suppliers who provide goods services and works on our behalf to comply with our equality principles, diversity and inclusion as set in the Fairer Enfield Policy.

Our Vision

Our new Fairer Enfield Policy reinforces the Council's duty to comply with relevant legislation and statutory requirements and as the borough continues to grow, confirms our commitment to improve equality and diversity for all who live, work and earn in Enfield. Furthermore, it outlines the behaviours and values that everyone working for and with the Council must demonstrate and the actions they must take in order to make this a reality.

In our Council Plan 2020 - 2022, we set out our vision to create a 'lifetime of opportunity for everyone'.

Early Help

- Improving outcomes for residents through social value

Our Fairer Enfield Policy follows four core values which form the framework for a fairer Enfield:

Outcomes

We will treat everyone fairly and equally, so that our staff, partners and communities have the same opportunities, regardless of their protected characteristics or socio-economic status. To do this, we will move beyond treating 'everyone the same' and instead make sure that we meet the different needs of individuals and groups. This is essential to address discrimination and disadvantage in an unequal society.

Respect

We will treat everyone with dignity and respect. "Respect" can be defined as having due regard for a person's feelings and wishes. Negative behaviours such as discrimination, harassment and intimidation undermine people's dignity, prevent equality and reinforce disadvantage.

Diversity

We will appreciate the value of differences between individuals and groups. We will celebrate the rich diversity, culture and heritage of our community and work with our partners to ensure that everyone in Enfield can safely express their views, religion, beliefs, feelings and wishes. Promoting the benefits of a diverse community helps to break down barriers and negative attitudes created through lack of understanding and misinformation and helps to promote social cohesion and good community relations

Inclusion

We will support communities from across the protected groups to actively participate in community life and to influence decision-making. We will support disadvantaged groups to have the opportunity to help shape policy and service changes which will affect them. We will take action to support minority groups to be proportionately represented in leadership roles across the Council

The Fairer Enfield Policy also includes eight equality objectives, which demonstrate specific areas where we are tackling inequality.

These eight objectives are:

- Overcome racism in Enfield.
- Deliver positive interventions to reduce serious youth violence in Enfield.
- Increase the number of Enfield residents affected by special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) who are in paid employment
- Improve the wellbeing and celebrate the contribution of our Lesbian, Gay, Bi and Trans community.
- Provide access to support services and networks to reduce social isolation.
- Work with our partners to mitigate the impact of Covid-19 on children and young people's mental health and wellbeing.
- Keep people safe from domestic abuse.
- Promote safer and stronger communities by encouraging the reporting of hate crime and reducing repeat incidents.

Background

Enfield is increasingly one of the most diverse parts of London, with all the benefits this brings us across our communities, culture, heritage and local economy. We are extremely proud of this and believe it is one of our strongest assets, however too many people in Enfield still do not have fair and equal opportunities.

- In 2019, Enfield was ranked as the 14th most diverse borough in London, with 37.37% of our population identifying as Black, Asian, Mixed Ethnicity or Other and 39% of borough's population being born overseas.¹
- Enfield is the 9th most deprived London borough and has the 11th highest rate of child poverty in the country.
- Based on the 2019 Enfield Ethnicity estimates, residents from White British backgrounds make up 35.32% of Enfield's inhabitants, with White Irish at 2.18% and other White groups at 25.13%. Other Ethnic Groups represent 5.25% of the population, Mixed Groups at 5.48%, Asian Groups at 10.97% and Black groups at 17.89%.²
- In 2019, 42.6% of disabled persons in Enfield were in employment. This is lower than the national average, which estimates 53.2% of disabled persons are in employment.³

³ National Population Survey, 2019

- Pupils in Enfield schools speak over 178 languages and dialects. The top five non-English languages spoken by Enfield school pupils, in 2020, were Turkish, Somali, Polish, Albanian and Bengali.⁴
- In Enfield schools in 2018/19, when looking at average attainment 8 score among broad ethnic categories, the lowest score was students from Black ethnic groups (43.2), and the highest score on average were students from the Chinese ethnic groups (70.3), a gap of 27.1 points. This is 6.8 points higher than the England gap of 20.3 points.⁵
- In 2018, one in five workers (19%) in Enfield were low paid versus one in ten for London (11%).⁶
- National analysis found that 12-18% of communities from ethnic minorities were struggling financially before the Covid-19 crisis, compared to 7% across the population.⁷ In Enfield, 57% of Citizen's Advice clients are from ethnic minorities, despite ethnic minorities representing 38% of the Borough's population.⁸
- In 2019, it is estimated that 7.6% of economically active 16-64-year-olds in Enfield were unemployed, compared with 4.6% in London and 4.0% in the UK on average.⁹

The Role of procurement in promoting Equalities and Valuing Diversity

The Council has a statutory duty to ensure that public money is spent in a way that ensures Value for Money and advances equality of opportunity. The embedding of equalities and diversity in the procurement process will help the Council to:

- Obtain value for money for the Council and improve the quality of local authority services
- Ensure that public money is not spent on practices which lead to unfair discrimination
- Create a diverse and integrated workforce
- Deliver more responsive and flexible services in combating social exclusion and building strong and cohesive communities
- Encourage other organisations to practice the Council's public service ethos on equalities.
- Deliver services that meet the needs of residents of the borough

- Improve employment conditions

The Council aims to fulfil the Fairer Enfield objectives by:

- Promoting equality and fairness through its procurement processes and practices
- Striving to ensure equal opportunities for all, when procuring goods, works or services
- Purchasing works and services from contractors who can demonstrate a commitment to making sure that their employees and their customers are not discriminated against because of age, sex, sexual orientation, race (including colour, nationality, national or ethnic origin) religion and belief, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy/maternity and marital/civil partnership status
- Securing fair employment terms and conditions for comparable employees when purchasing works or services
- Securing compliance with our duty to provide works and services that demonstrate Best Value, whilst ensuring that our policies support diversity and do not lead to unfair discrimination or social exclusion.
- Recognising the connection between service quality and the management of workforce issues. Good quality works/services depend on appropriately skilled and motivated workforces. Neglecting relevant workforce matters in order to drive won costs could have adverse effects on the desired quality and value for money.
- Undertaking transparent, open and fair procurement.

The Legal Bit

Equality Act 2010

The Equality Act (2010) sets out anti-discrimination law in the UK. It identifies the following protected characteristics:

- age,
- disability
- gender reassignment
- race
- religion or belief
- sex, sexual orientation
- pregnancy and maternity
- marriage and civil partnerships.

Enfield Council is also going beyond our statutory duties under the 2010 Equality Act by seeking to also implement the Act's socio-economic duty (Part 1 Section 1).¹⁰ We commit to treating everyone equally regardless of socio-economic status and will work to eliminate discrimination and disadvantage caused by a person's socio-economic status.

¹⁰ Fairer Enfield 2021-25

The Act sets out the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) which applies to public authorities in England, e.g. local authorities, police, schools, universities. It also applies to organisations carrying out a public function. It therefore includes private companies or voluntary sector organisations that have been contracted to carry out public functions on behalf of a public authority. The duty only applies in respect of the public function being carried out and not the wider business of the contracted body.

The PSED requires public authorities (and those acting on our behalf) to have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not, and
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

The Act also explains that advancing equality of opportunity involves having due regard to the need to:

- Remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
- Take steps to meet the needs of people with certain protected characteristics where these are different from the needs of other people, and
- Encourage people with certain protected characteristics to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is disproportionately low

The main purpose of the Equality Act 2010 (EqA 2010) is to streamline and strengthen antidiscrimination legislation in Great Britain. It provides the legal framework that protects people from discrimination.

Social Value Act 2012

The Social Value Act 2012 is aimed at those commissioning, policy making or operational roles who need to procure services on behalf of a contracting authority (the Council).

Before they start the procurement process, commissioners should think about whether the services they are going to buy, or the way they are going to buy them, could secure these benefits for their area or stakeholders.

The Act is a tool to help commissioners get more value for money out of procurement. It also encourages commissioners to talk to their local provider market or community to design better services, often finding new and innovative solutions to difficult problems.

The benefits sought should depend on what would best meet that area's particular needs and could be in the form of social benefits (for example reducing anti-social behaviour), economic benefits (for example increasing local employment for long term unemployed), or environmental benefits (for example reducing local congestion).

The Act is not an end in itself but is one tool to promote the wider uptake of a particular approach to commissioning for best value, namely social value.

Other Laws that may apply:

Acts of Parliament

- Human Rights Act 1998
- Civil Partnership Act 2004

Although it is not stated in legislation as a protected characteristic, we also commit to treating everyone equally regardless of socio-economic status and will work to eliminate discrimination and disadvantage caused by a person's socio-economic status.

Competing for Contracts

The Council has to follow the requirements of UK procurement legislation and its own internal Contract Procedure Rules when procuring goods, services or works. Accordingly, if your organisation wants to win work from the Council, you will need to be aware of our Fairer Enfield Policy and our Sustainable and Ethical Procurement Policy to comply with all the relevant legislation on equalities.

Enfield Council seeks to work with organisations who maintain high standards of ethical conduct, treat their employees fairly and promote equality and diversity in employment and service provision.

This will be tested through our procurement process. At Selection Questionnaire (SQ) or Invitation to Tender (ITT) you will be asked questions to demonstrate how your organisation is delivering Equality and Diversity in your workplace. Some example questions are set out in Appendix 1.

In preparation for the procurement it will be helpful for you to:

When tendering for work from the Council, you should, as a suggested minimum:

- 1) Make sure you have all the information you need about the procurement, so you can consider how you will respond. Make sure you understand how the tenders will be evaluated.
- 2) Make sure you answer fully any questions on equality that are in the procurement documentation, and supply copies of your policies if requested.

- 3) In tenders, where asked, it would be helpful if you can back up these policies up with positive practical examples, that are relevant to the contract in question and show how equalities are really embedded in your organisation.
 - 4) If you are successful in getting the contract, make sure you are geared up to meet your obligations, including those on equalities, and monitor your own performance going forward.
 - 5) Do you need to give your staff any specific training before the contract starts?
 - 6) Bear in mind that we will be monitoring your performance of the contract throughout the contract term. Make sure you answer any questions we ask about your performance, including on equalities.
 - 7) Remember that other authorities may approach us about your performance on our contract, particularly if you put us forward as a referee on other tenders.

In some instances, questions may represent a minimum standard below which potential contractors will not be considered; in others they may be scored to reflect relative levels of impact on equalities issues. The criteria used to evaluate answers to the questions will be provided at the same time as the questions.

While equality and diversity is more likely to be relevant to contracts for services, it should not be assumed that it will not be relevant to contracts for goods or works.

The impact of the procurement with regard to the promotion of equalities within service delivery and employment opportunities will also be monitored and managed during the life of each contract, to ensure suppliers are actively supporting our Fairer Enfield Policy and Sustainable and Ethical Procurement Policy.

Equalities in the contract

Our standard Terms and Conditions of Contract include equalities clauses/specifications that are relevant and proportionate to the contract. If these are included then as a supplier you can expect to be monitored on these clauses, general equalities legislation and any specifics added to the monitoring performance you have been advised of, in addition to the other Contractual KPI's and monitoring requirements. This will include evidencing that you are upholding the equalities act, and specific requirements that might have been set out in the tendering process.

What we expect of you

As a supplier to the Council, you will be expected to work with us to support and improve Equality and Diversity within the Borough. Ensure that as a minimum you are meeting the Equality Act 2010 by the use of policies.

Our Sustainable and Ethical Procurement Policy sets out minimum, enhanced and preferred standards of expectation. They may be embedded into the specification or through the social value element of the process. The section on equalities is set out below:

Actions that might help with meeting these criteria:

- a) Draw up clear and justifiable job criteria, which are demonstrably objective, and job related.
- b) Do not allow offensive behaviour and language on any of your premises or sites
- c) Have respectful and safe standards of dress for your staff.
- d) Have care and consideration for members of the public at all times.
- e) Offer pre-employment training, where appropriate, to prepare potential job applicants for selection tests and interviews. You should also consider positive action training aimed at groups which are underrepresented in your workforce.
- f) Examine your existing policies and practices to identify barriers to equality, diversity and inclusion. Set an action plan for your organisation, with clear targets, so that you and your staff have a clear idea of what you want to achieve and by when.
- g) Develop links with local community groups, organisations and schools, in order to reach a wider pool of potential applicants.

- h) Always remember to follow equality legislation in your employment practices, and all areas of your operations, including the performance of works, the supply of goods and the performance of services.
 - i) Consider your organisation's image: do you encourage applications from underrepresented groups in your workforce and feature these groups in your recruitment literature, or could you be seen as an employer who is indifferent to these groups?
 - j) Consider flexible working, career breaks, providing childcare facilities, and so on, to help parents/guardians in particular meet domestic responsibilities and pursue their occupations.
 - k) Consider making changes to working practices and the physical features of your premises in response to the needs of people affected by disability.
 - l) Consider access issues for people in the area of construction or delivery sites (e.g. wheelchairs, prams etc).

We will monitor your adherence to the Equalities requirements to ensure you continue to meet our objectives within the Contract and will ask for evidence at contract review meetings and agenda items.

As a supplier to the Council, you must ensure that any sub-contractors also meet the EqA 2010 and are supporting the Council's Fairer Enfield Policy and Sustainable and Ethical Procurement Policy. You should ask prospective sub-contractors to respond to the questions in our SQ/ITT when assessing the capability of a sub-contractor to ensure that the selected sub-contractor meets our equality and diversity requirements.

What Happens if you do not comply?

Where our contract monitoring indicates breaches of equality requirements, we may discuss this with you and agree steps to rectify this. A serious breach may mean that we will need to use sanctions provided in your contract, but we will initially work with you to understand the problem.

We may, at our discretion:

- Explore whether staffing matters are properly managed
- Discuss and perhaps clarify the equality criteria
- Ask whether there are any different ways to the equality objectives
- Evaluate performance management
- Ask you questions about our partnership working approach

Next Steps

We recognise as a Council that we are on a journey to improve equality and diversity, and our Fairer Enfield Policy, sets out how we will move forward to create a fairer Enfield.

Responsible Procurement

Enfield is committed to maximising social value through its procurement activities, as required by the Public Service (Social Value) Act 2012 and as outlined within our Sustainable and Ethical Procurement Policy. This contract has been identified as most relevant to the following mechanisms to achieve social value; (1) targeted recruitment and (2) training and progression opportunities:
