D. Reason for applying for naming/numbering:

Numbering or renumbering an existing property

Numbering a new property

Naming a new street or property

Please note if you wish to name your house (individual residential house) please contact the Royal Mail, you do not have to apply to this authority. Please see Enfield Council's Street Naming and Numbering Policy for guidelines.

E. Authority to request naming and numbering of streets/properties:

Are you the:

Freeholder

Leaseholder

Tenant

If you are a Tenant, you must provide proof that the Freeholder has agreed to the request you are making. Land Registry details are required as proof of the Freeholders name and address.

Does anyone other than yourself have an interest in the above property/site (i.e. other occupiers?)
If so, written permission must be received from them that they agree to proceed with your request.

Naming Properties and Streets (residential and commercial)

New property/street names must not duplicate any similar name already in use in the borough or neighbouring boroughs if nearby. The Street Naming and Numbering Policy explains this:
